Purple Martin Conference

The PMCA's 2022 Purple Martin Conference—Conservation across Continents—provides a wonderful opportunity for researchers, educators, and Purple Martin enthusiasts to gather. Collaborate with landlords from around the country and attend talks with leading Purple Martin researchers from across North and South America, as well as educators and landlords. For more detailed information on speakers and talks, please visit conference.purplemartin.org.

We're excited to join together with you to celebrate the wonderful work being done to better understand these birds, their conservation issues, and to inspire new generations of Purple Martin landlords. We can't wait to reunite with old friends, make new ones, and share our love of these wonderful Purple Martins!
